TELEPRONE No. 12.

pedecine December 22nd, 1-87. The proposed Telegraph Convention between the Chinese Telegraph Administration and the Foreign Companies has, it is rumoured practically fallen through. If the collapse of the negotiations was not already complete it can hardly fail to become so after the energetic protests of the Shanghai and Hongkong Chambers of Commerce. The policy of the Telegraph Companies in th Far E st has never been characterised by liberali a. Instead of rates growing cheaper they have been increased, and now that there is a prospect of healthy competition th Companies are anxious that the prospective competitor should join their ring and enter into the agreement that there is to be no lowering of rates. The Shanghai Chamber of Commerce, in their letter to the Doren of the Diplomatic Body at Peking, say :- "I these days the use of the telegraph has become a necessity in all business operations and the present charges are a very heavy tax, while much of the business which under the old regime would allow of the use of the lines has now to be abandoned, as the cost is are ser than the operation can bear." This is a statement to which all merchants wil readily subscribe. The Telegraph Compunes, by their illiberal policy, are retarding the growth of trade. Relief has sighed for, and new that the Chinese land lines are so far tre gressed that connection with the Russian he can be established, there seems some pros- [left here yesterday for Whimpho. pretain perbapa it would be use a correct to say possibility, of a reduction of rates being belought about by the healthy inflaence of competition. But the two companies lost time in setting about their attempt to ent off this chance, and, so its is reported, offer the Chinese Telegraph Administration as liberal subsidy as an allucement to it t enter their confederacy, and minimise the · advantages to the public of the establish ment of the new line. The statement that i Sir Juan Walsham has urged the conclu- forts. sion of the convention appears to us to be open to some doubt. The reason given for his alleged action is that he entertains a fear that if rates are lowered the Eastern Extension Company will have to give up its line to but the latest symptoms are less favourable. Company is not likely to be driven off by any moderate reduction in rates. Moreover, Sir John Walsham could hardly have been unimated by any particular for vouritism to the Eastern Extension Company when he have proceeded from Singapore to Hongkong, made the agreement for the establishment of telegraphic communication between Yunmangand Burmah, as this will open up still another route, and so introduce further conpetition. The Convention must therefore be emphatieally condemned both on political and cominercial grounds.

Ar the Criminal Sessions yesterd y HENRY WATSON, late wardmaster at the Government Civil H spital, was sentence Ho seven years rend servitude for embezzing the money and property of a patient who died in that institution. Two months ago WILLIAM HOGG WOLSELY MARKHAM, a Paymister Her M jesty's Nav, was charged before the same Judge, Mr. Justice Leace, with embezzling public money. The amount involved in the last named case was many times larger than that appropriated by positio of the two me were vastly more a sentence of five years, penal servitude. while WATSON gets one of seven years. MARKHAM was a man with all the advantages of education, appointed to a position BON was a man drawn from a lower rank of lufe, whose pay was small, who was n supposed to be entrusted with the custody of large funds, but whe wing to the absence for a proper system, tound money placed in his bands, and yielded to the temptation to appropriate it. MARKHAM produced same. MARKHAM's crime was the greater WATSON'S position in society before his crime was the lower. But because his position in society had been lower than that of MARKHAM is that any reason why he should be visited with a more severe panishment for his come? In his report on the Civi Hospital for 1884 Dr. WHARRY said :-"The calls upon the ward-master are constant and so harassing that there is always a risk of his going the way of his predecessors. These almost without exception have succumbed to the pressure, and however promising and well-becommended on joining the service, have nearly all taken to drink and dissipation." In a subsequent report Dr. WHARRY wrote:-- "Mr Warson, the European ward-mister, bas taken considerable pains to learn bis duties. and he is now exceedingly useful. His position is a trying one, and his work very bacassing." Finally, after apparently doing good work, he justified the remarks of Dr. WHAR-Er in the earlier of these extricts and did go the way of his predecessors; but so fuas the embezzlement is concerned, the system under which WATSON was allowed have the money in his hands is as a net to animously elected R.W.M., and he was duly inblame as the man himself. An escape of prisoners in the chain gang took plue vesterday afternoon. It appears that a party of convicts numbering about one hundred were employed on Government works at Lapsap-wan yesterday afternoon about 3.30 p.m. While they were working in range one of them suddenly struck work and commeaced to assault the guards in charge of them. During the melee six of the convicts succeeded in effecting their escape. The Police were at once communicated with and steps were immediately talen to recapture the fugitives. A party Police and tro pers proceeded to the spot and in stituted a search among the hills, Mount Davis, and all places where the escaped convicts were likely to have taken refuge. Up to last night none were captured.

The ndictment against the prisoner was first that being in the public service he did steal certain property belonging to Herman B-usck, and secondly thesteeling of the property simply. The was a question of punishment, as the crime being committed while the prisoner was a public servant made the punishment heavier; but with ever, a few more players arrived making the that the jury had nothing to do. In order to meet the circumstances of the case two other counts were added, because if they came to the conclusion that the theft had been committed after the death of Mr. Beusch then the property passed into the possession of the Registrar, and if it were stolen must have been stolen from him. If they came to the conclusion that the property was stolen between the 30th October and the 1st November they would find the prisoner ruilty on the first and second counts; if they thought riew in Scotland, the scene this time being solos were included in the programme.
